

Please do not weaken the current Do Not Call law. It's my phone and service. I bought the phone and pay for the service. My home is not an industry. And the bank managers do not give me the option to call them at their home to discuss business when I feel like it.